

Sneeze

[aka Operetta - Sneeze]
(from George White Scandals of 1924)

Music and Lyrics by George Gershwin and B. G. DeSylva

The image displays a handwritten musical score for the piece 'Sneeze'. The score is written on ten systems of staves, each consisting of a treble and bass clef staff. The music is in 2/4 time and features a variety of rhythmic patterns, including eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. There are several dynamic markings such as 'p' (piano) and 'f' (forte), and articulation marks like accents and slurs. The notation includes many accidentals and some complex rhythmic figures, particularly in the later systems. The handwriting is somewhat messy and appears to be a working draft or a composer's sketch.

First not a word not a sound no body seems to be a sound the dam - dam dam - dam red from wall through way she will see her and carry her a way what are we going to get her for doing this job for you what are we going to get her for doing this gift for you ... all yours yours each a share of the ransom ransom after we see the Damn - Damn Damn Damn all what do we have to do all you have to do is give her some of this sleeping brew Hist a-slowly

slowly As - I wander in the moon light over the valley over the vale Comes a melody ear - Transcending Hark it is the nightingale. I am thinking of my lover who is full of love for me and the while I slowly wander I am filled with hope — my wait a word with you my maid who are you be not afraid do you come a long in silence if you do not call for aid naught will harm you naught will fall you what is your answer pretty angel knows the way that is all I have to say then all must to face of face of course is over to face how come to face of face face how come then 9th must to face what to me when what seize her and carry her a way a way a way let me go day day
